

HUMANS OF THE ROYAL

Dr Lizbeth Kenny AO

Dr Lizbeth (Liz) Kenny is a Senior Radiation Oncologist at the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital and the Medical Director – Central Integrated Regional Cancer Service. She is also a senior member of the RBWH Head and Neck Clinic and Breast Clinic and chairs the Herston Head and Neck Cancer Collaborative.

Her main areas of specialty interest are Head and Neck Cancer and Breast Cancer.

Born in Scotland her family immigrated to Brisbane when she was 12 years old.

Liz graduated in Medicine from The University of Queensland in 1980, undertook her residency at the Royal Brisbane Hospital and completed her specialty training in Radiation Oncology at The Queensland Radium Institute in Brisbane in 1987.

After nine years in private practice, she decided to return to the Royal Brisbane and Women's Hospital and in 2005, she was appointed Medical Director, Central Integrated Regional Cancer Service.

Liz was appointed as an Adjunct Professor, University of Queensland in 2016 and has served as Dean of the Faculty of Radiation Oncology, The Royal Australian and New Zealand College of Radiologists and subsequently became President of the College. She has also been President of The Clinical Oncological Society of Australia. She serves on many national and international committees.

Liz has been awarded Honorary Memberships or Fellowships of the following organisations:

- The European Society of Radiology
- The Radiological Society of North America
- The American College of Radiology
- The British Institute of Radiology
- The Royal College of Radiologists
- The Cardiovascular and Interventional Society of Europe.

She was awarded an officer of the order of Australia (AO) in 2017 for her services to medical services.

Liz is a past chairman of the Medical Staff Association and a committed member of the Royal Alumni Committee.

Staff Member?
Join Royal Alumni Now
www.rbwhfoundation.com.au
Telephone 3646 3547